I AM the Light of the World

DEVOTIONALS FOR THE WEEK OF:

March 2, 2025

So many people wander around with spiritual blinders covering their eyes. This week we dig deeper into what it means to have the Light of Jesus guiding us by faith.

Monday: Isaiah 9:2; John 8:12; John 9:5

Why are people walking in spiritual darkness? What helps them be able to see the Light? Who is the Light? How can we never have to walk in darkness again? What does it mean to you to follow Jesus? Today, spend time talking to Jesus about desiring to follow Him more. Then open your heart to reading the Bible every day. It is God's words to you so that you can follow Him.

Tuesday: Matthew 22:13; Jude 1:13; Psalm 104:29; Nahum 1:8; 1 John 1:5

How is hell referred to in these passages? Is there any light there? If you wonder about a lake of fire and darkness being one in the same, don't. Scientists have discovered the hottest flames are not yellow, orange or red. They are black. What does it mean to you that some people will be in the blackest darkness? Why would Jesus hiding His face bring terror to those in hell? Today, make sure of your salvation. Jesus will be light for you for eternity.

Wednesday: Psalm 82; Proverbs 2:13-15; Romans 3:12-18

What do these verses say about those who are in darkness? What is true of one who is morally depraved? Is there any good in such people who are depraved? Why do some people like to walk in darkness? Look at your heart today. Are you seeing any light? Are you seeing any darkness? If you are a follower of Christ, choose as an act of your will to walk away from the darkness. Move to where the Light is.

Thursday: Psalm 1

What is the difference between one who walks in darkness and one who walks in light? What are we encouraged to do with those who are darkness dwellers? Where is our delight if not toward the darkness? How can we be assured of good success in life? What are you going to do with the Word of God to help you do more than have a Bible on your bookshelf collecting dust? Meditate means to think about the verses that you have read. Let the Word sink in.

Friday: Matthew 5:16; Psalm 76:4; Philippians 2:15

What are Christ followers compared to? What happens when you walk in the Light of Jesus? Are you becoming brighter or darker as time passes? Why is that? How can the radiance of Jesus be seen in and through you? Look for opportunities to be Light in someone's life.

Saturday: John 8:12; 2 Peter 3:18; 1 Thessalonians 5:5; Isaiah 9:2

What is the difference between being a child of the night and being a child of the daytime? How can you grow stronger in the intensity of Light? Today, decide to be a child of the Light. Walk away from any and all darkness that you observe around you. Turn people away from darkness.
