

The Lion of Judah

Revelation 5:1-7

In the throne room of heaven we see the meaning of why we are here.

We are to _____ God.

I. The identity of the scroll (vs. 1)

It's _____: At the _____ hand of the Father on High.

It is under His _____ and sovereign _____.

He gives the control of the scroll to _____.

All _____ is given to Jesus

All the _____ of this world are given to Jesus

Jeremiah 32:6-15 A _____ scroll sealed with _____ seals.

The _____ of the scroll: There is writing on _____ sides of the scroll.

The _____ is the _____ of the property.

The _____ defines who is _____ to open it.

The scroll is the _____ to the _____ for all of history.

Psalms 2 Though the nations rebel Christ has purchased it with His blood.

II. The _____ of the scroll (vs. 2-4)

A. It is proclaimed by a _____ angel. The strong angel mentioned in Revelation 10:1 and 18:21 is _____. His name means 'the _____ of God'.

B. The manner in which the proclamation is made - A _____.

C. The message He proclaims - _____?
Who is Revelation written about? _____.

D. The problem John saw - _____ was worthy in heaven, on the earth, under the earth to open the scroll.

III. The introduction of the One who is worthy (vs. 5-7)

A. The _____ - God is called Lion 164 times in the Bible.

- He _____ the wicked
- He is _____ (Judges 14:18)
- He is _____ (Proverbs 28:1)

Genesis 49:8 The comes from the Tribe of _____ Revelation 22:16 He claims to be _____.

Revelation 5 He is the _____.

Vs. 5 He is _____ over death.

B. The Lamb -

He is _____ in heaven (Revelation 5:6)

A lamb _____ in heaven, which signifies that Christ is poised for _____.

From this point on everything recorded shows the _____ of Jesus Christ in the history and future of our world.

His _____: A _____ Lamb.

This past action (when Christ was crucified) has perfect results going forward.

The only way to heaven is the cross of Christ.

We will praise Him in heaven because of His _____ on a cross.

My future is in _____.

My task in heaven – praising Him because He was _____.

3. His Characteristics -

- _____ horns which are the seven spirits of God who are sent out to declare judgement on the whole earth.
Horns in the Bible are symbols of _____ and authority.
Seven is the _____ number. This Lamb is a picture of God's perfect power and authority. He has _____ power.
He has _____ authority.
He is the _____ of kings and _____ of lords.
- _____ eyes (God sees _____ that is taking place perfectly). He can send out the angels to judge without error and execute His plan of Tribulation without missing anything.

How does He know what to do?

Vs. 7 He came and _____ the scroll out of the right hand of the Father who sits on the throne.

He is the Lord of all.